Code of Ethics

NATIONAL PAINT AND COATINGS ASSOCIATION, INC.

WE, members of the National Paint and Coatings Association, Inc., recognizing our responsibilities and obligations to promote the public welfare, and to maintain honorable, fair and friendly relations among men, do pledge ourselves:

- 1. To compete always with fairness and honesty, seeking patronage on merit and service; to refrain from false, derogatory reference, written, oral or printed, to competitors or their products; and from the circulation of harmful rumors regarding such competitors' products or their personal or financial reputation; to strive, by sincere and intelligent cooperation with our competitors, in all lawful ways to increase the efficiency and service to the public of the industry as a whole; to base our advertising exclusively on the merit of our own products and the value of our own service, without false, derogatory reference to the products of competitors or misleading comparisons therewith.
- 2. To be guided by a spirit of justice, honor and fairness, in all our relations with members of the allied trades, realizing that the standard of ethics maintained in our industry must vitally affect the standard observed in associated industries; to encourage the adoption by the allied trades of similar codes as guides to govern their practices; and to discourage unfair trade practices in those trades, even though such practices might at times be to our own immediate advantage.
- 3. To represent our products truthfully in advertising, labeling and branding; avoiding therein all false or misleading statements or descriptions.
- 4. To avoid and actively strive to prevent all forms of commercial bribery or corruption by members of this Association and by the industry in general; and to this end we pledge our support to the Federal Trade Commission in locating and prosecuting individuals guilty of such practices.
- 5. To recognize the right of employees to use all honorable and reasonable efforts to better their conditions, but to refrain from directly or indirectly soliciting or bidding for the services of the employee of another member; to promote, in light of contemporary hiring practices, high ethical standards in the area of manpower recruitment.
- 6. To refrain from the unethical practice of taking in exchange for our own products the paints and coatings of another manufacturer.
- 7. To adhere faithfully to the rules of conduct herein set forth and to inspire our fellow members to do likewise, believing that the Golden Rule is the only safe guide of conduct in the relations among men.
- 8. Any violation of this Code shall be referred by the General Counsel of the National Paint and Coatings Association, Inc., to the Executive Committee for consideration and action. To ensure fairness, elementary due process requirements will be met throughout these proceedings.

For 87 Years Progress Through Cooperation

The first meeting to organize an association of paint and varnish manufacturers was held at the Grand Union Hotel, Saratoga, New York, on September 11, 1888. There were in existence at that time several paint clubs which were strictly local or regional in scope. Because paint was distributed mainly through drug stores, many paint manufacturers were members of the National Wholesale Drug Association.

The first and oldest paint club was the Paint and Oil Club of New England, organized February 23, 1884. It is still a thriving organization as the New England Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association. The St. Louis Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association held its first meeting on December 18, 1886. The first meeting of the Chicago Club was held February 25, 1887. The New York Club was organized February 26, 1887. The Philadelphia Club was organized October 1, 1887 and the Pittsburgh Paint and Drug Club came into being on May 24, 1887. George B. Heckel, in his history of the American paint and varnish industry, "THE PAINT INDUSTRY," calls attention to the fact that the Cincinnati Club also had been organized in 1888.

Delegates of the various paint and oil clubs met in Saratoga and agreed on the organization plan and decided on the name "National Paint, Oil and Varnish Association of the United States."

In the decades following the organization of this association, the manufacturers in the industry, while almost invariably retaining their membership in the National Paint, Oil and Varnish Association, formed separate organizations which developed as follows:

Paint Grinders' Association of the U.S., organized May 8, 1889.

Paint Manufacturers' Association of the U.S. (a change of name by the Paint Grinders' Association) in 1907.

National Varnish Manufacturers' Association, organized November 3, 1903.

American Paint and Varnish Manufacturers' Association, organized October 11, 1926, being a combination of the above two.

Unification of the National Paint, Oil and Varnish Association and the American Paint and Varnish Manufacturers Association was brought about November 1, 1933 at the annual meeting of the industry held in Chicago. At that time the National Paint, Varnish, and Lacquer Association was founded. New conditions clearly demonstrated the interdependence of the various factors of the industry in cooperating with the Government through a single powerful organization of its own, with maximum prestige and benefit for the individual members and the industry as a whole.

At their 84th Annual Meeting on November 9, 1971 the members of the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association voted to change the Association name to the National Paint and Coatings Association (NPCA). It was felt that this new name would broaden the scope of the organization to include all coatings and better represent the Association's dominant part in the industry's progress. Today, in its splendid Washington headquarters, the National Paint and Coatings Association is a highly efficient and well regarded organization which renders valuable and varied services to its members.

WAS 1980 A GOOD YEAR FOR YOUR COMPANY?

We'd like it to be one of your best. And today is when we should start planning to make sure it is.

We know this is a revolutionary period in the formulation and application of coatings. Environmental factors, compounded by the energy crisis, have now accelerated the pace of this revolution.

As a major coatings supplier with a unique department dedicated to serving most segments of the industry, we are in an exceptional position to meet the obvious challenges you will be facing. To help you cope with the new environmental controls. And offer you the benefit of our major on-going programs in the development of Water-Borne, Powder and, newest of all, Photocurable Coatings systems.

1980 is almost here. And the sooner we match our resources—our people and experience—with your needs, the sooner we'll both be ready to meet the future with confidence.

And isn't that the best way to do business?

PEOPLE PLANNING THE FUTURE.

Reichhold's world of resin technology

RCI now offers the most complete package of water-dilutable resins available today

Reichhold, the world's most diversified manufacturer of coating resins, now has ready for you the most complete line of water-reducible resins in the business, as well as the cross-linking agents to go with them.

RCI can help you with a resin whether you're working with alkyds or acrylics... whether you've got a product that's air-dried or baked.

You will, of course, run into some familiar RCI trade names—Beckosol®, Super-Beckamine®, and Synthemul®, to name a few.

But you'll also run into something else at Reichhold: true dedication to serving your needs and real technological know-how to solve your resin problems.

There's a world of help waiting for you at RCI. You'll find the nearest Reichhold sales office listed in the White Pages.

And you can write for a handy 4-page summary sheet of RCI water-reducible resins for industrial coatings to the address below. Act today.

Now StanChem is a new source for latex polymers.

That's right. After 50 years of successful experience in the chemical coatings and plastisol markets, we've now started manufacturing latex polymers.

We have recently completed a new 30 million pound per year polymer plant designed to handle a wide variety of vehicles for the paint industry. Our reactors range in size from a pilot unit capable of operating at 1000 pounds pressure to a 6000 gallon production vessel.

In addition, StanChem's well equipped and well staffed laboratories insure uniform quality throughout our entire product line.

Since StanChem (formerly Stanley Chemical) has been so deeply immersed in coatings for half a century, this knowledge can be applied to your polymer problem to produce a product for you.

Send for our StanChem Polymer brochure:

"We changed from mercury to METASOL TK-100,[®] the effective mildewcide. Here's why.."

"We changed because of safety to plant personnel—and TK-100 is nonpolluting to the environment," says Harold R. Beckwith, Vice President, Research & Development, Standard T Chemical Company.

You get a whole string of benefits with a switch to TK-100 from mercury. Besides being nonpolluting and safe, it gives unbeatable mildew protection in exterior and interior paints, proved in tests where other mildewcides failed.

And with TK-100, you don't need a stabilizer, as demonstrated in tests covering two years' storage.

Better mildew protection. No mercury problems. Safer handling. Benefits backed by laboratory and field tests and performance in other paints. At costs comparable to mercury. Your Merck man will supply all the details.

Or write for technical information and samples to Merck Chemical Division, Merck & Co., Inc., Rahway, N.J. 07065.

METASOL TK-100 and TK-100 are registered trademarks of Merck & Co., Inc., for thiazobenzazole.

You can't beat the way
our cans get to you...

and then get paint to your customers.

Our cans not only get to you on time, but get shipped on pallets—open, bagged or boxed. That's important to you.

Even more important to your customers, though, is what's in the cans they get. If they bought a certain color water base paint, they want no variation of that color.

Unfortunately, corrosion in a can's ear area often produces rust, which produces paint of a slightly different color.

No good, says Milton. So if you order any of Milton's one-gallon cans, you'll be happy to know that they're over-sprayed to combat corrosion. Check corrosion and you check rust. Check rust and you check paint discoloration.

We at Milton have been making containers for almost a half-century. We have a deep-down knowledge of containers. And if there's one thing we like better than getting cans to our customers, it's seeing them get perfect paint to their customers.

Manufacturers of containers since 1927

We've been mixed up for 79 years.

Your products and ours. A great mix.

And we've been put on, too. Not to mention sat on. And bumped on. And stepped on. And that's good for you and for us because when you get mixed up with Spencer Kellogg products, you get mixed up with the best resins there are.

Like our oil-modified urethane — Spenkel F78. A hard, fast-dry, durable urethane — for industrial and trade sales finishes for wood and metal.

Also, our moisture-cured urethanes. Spenkel M21 for interior finishes on wood and concrete floors. Spenlite M22 — an aliphatic type urethane for high performance exterior finishes with excellent color and gloss retention. Both products are highly abrasion and impact resistant.

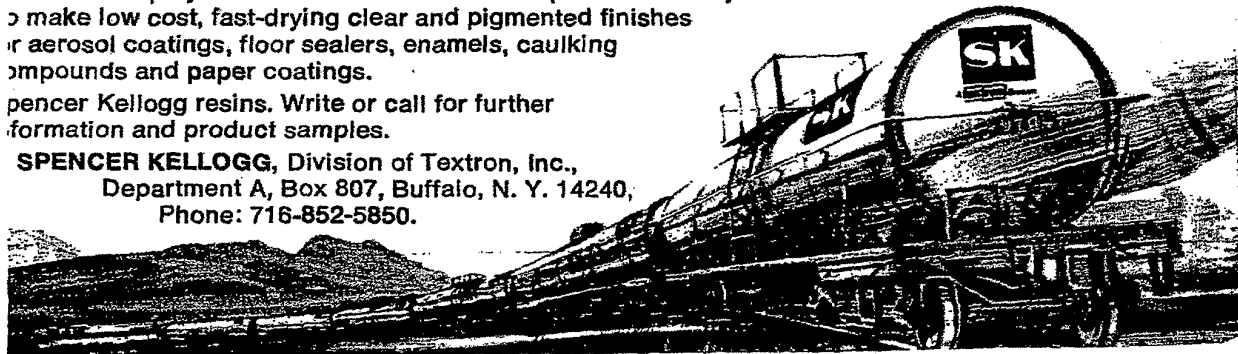

And VT oil copolymer Keltrol 1074. It's mixed up in a lot of ways.

To make low cost, fast-drying clear and pigmented finishes for aerosol coatings, floor sealers, enamels, caulking compounds and paper coatings.

Spencer Kellogg resins. Write or call for further information and product samples.
